Cyber-Shamanic Music

CyberShamanic Music is a magical blending and weaving of many different electronic music styles: Ambient, Electronic, Space, New Age, Trance, Wobble, Dubstep, Techno, Rave, House, Psychedelic. All the music is created by Shapeshifter. Cyber-Shamanic music is a merging/blending of technology and higher creativity into a musical expression that carries within its essence a message to those who are awakening to a new experience of being fully human. The core of this message is — To Evolve. Humanity, as a whole, is experiencing an evolutionary shift

Listening to Cyber-Shamanic music requires a soft focused receptivity and intent to receive the most from the experience. It is not musical wallpaper meant to be skimmed over lightly. You must be willing to let go into ecstasy and communion with the Flow. Music in its original expression was a tribal experience. Much of it has since devolved into a shallow social experience of background noise stimulation that has entrained humanity to a lower vibration rate. Welcome to a form of musical expression that awakens not only consciousness, but has been created with the radical intent of activating the dormant DNA codes and rejuvenating the temple of the body human. Raising the very vibrational structure, creating the possibility of physical immortality via conscious ascension pathways attaining optimal clarity in matter transformed. You can then consciously choose to live in the bliss and freedom of your full and glorious potential as the veils of illusion are lifted and you begin to remember who you really are. Read blog post — Creative Evolution through Higher Consciousness Music.

As the sounds surround and enfold within you, they travel through the cellular/DNA matrix, sub-atomic levels and beyond in joyful waves of modulation — ever deeper, ever onward. Something vague, yet hauntingly familiar begins to happen. Close your eyes, focus your senses inward and you will feel the energy within the music moving through you until a harmonic resonance is achieved uniting body, emotion, mind and spirit into the ecstasies of One, the blending of powerful vibrational frequencies. Depending on your willingness to Let Go and Go With The Flow, you can travel wherever the music guides you — using your sincere intention to explore past, present and future realities. Experience a magical journey through the infinite and ever-changing windows and doorways of the labyrinth of our existence.
